

1.1 The American Revolution	1.2 The American Civil War
1.3 The American West	1.4 The American Industrial Revolution
1.5 The American Civil Rights Movement	1.6 The American Space Program
1.7 The American Environmental Movement	1.8 The American Cultural Revolution
1.9 The American Economic Crisis	1.10 The American Globalization

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Unit 1: The History of the United States

By the end of this unit, students should be able to:

- Identify the major events and figures in the history of the United States.
- Explain the causes and consequences of the American Revolution, Civil War, and Industrial Revolution.
- Describe the role of the American West in the development of the United States.
- Analyze the impact of the American Civil Rights Movement on society.
- Discuss the significance of the American Space Program.
- Evaluate the role of the American Environmental Movement in shaping public policy.
- Assess the impact of the American Cultural Revolution on the arts and media.
- Examine the causes and consequences of the American Economic Crisis.
- Discuss the role of the United States in the process of globalization.

Unit 2: The American Revolution

This unit explores the events leading up to the American Revolution, the war itself, and the establishment of the new nation.

The American Revolution was a war fought between the thirteen original colonies and the Kingdom of Great Britain, from 1775 to 1781. The war resulted in the colonies gaining independence and the formation of the United States of America.

The American Civil War was a war fought between the United States and the Confederate States of America, from 1861 to 1865. The war resulted in the preservation of the Union and the abolition of slavery.

The American Industrial Revolution was a period of rapid industrialization in the United States, from the late 18th century to the mid-19th century. It was characterized by the development of new technologies and the growth of the manufacturing sector.

Unit 3: The American West

This unit explores the role of the American West in the development of the United States, from the early 19th century to the late 19th century.